

Roosevelt's Message

(Associated Press Cable to The Star.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 6.—President Roosevelt's message to Congress was read today in both houses. It advocates liberal appropriations for the purposes of the government, but contains a warning against extravagance. Capital and labor are entitled to equal protection, says the message, but both must observe the laws.

The message declares that the national government should control the great corporations and says that the railroad rebates must stop. Agriculture, irrigation and forestry should be promoted.

An improvement is needed in the consular service. A national quarantine law is desirable. Silver should be redeemable in gold, says the President, and he favors the advancement of the American merchant marine in Oriental markets; the regulations of immigration; the revision of naturalization and citizenship laws; and measures for the protection of the purity of the ballot are urged.

The President favors allowing the Territory of Alaska a Delegate to Congress, and declares for a peaceful foreign policy, an efficient army and navy and international arbitration, also the protection of Americans abroad and the continuance of the present policy in the Philippines with lower tariffs.

The President recommends granting the Governor of Hawaii the power to summarily remove his subordinates and recommends the dredging of Honolulu harbor and the study of leprosy in Hawaii by the United States Marine Hospital Service.

The tariff question is unmentioned.

MUCH FOR HAWAII

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 6.—Secretary of the Treasury Shaw has sent to Congress with his approval the estimates submitted by Governor Carter of Hawaii for dredging Honolulu harbor, $250,000; also to refund to the Territory $175,022 spent already by the Territory for dredging; $1,000,000 for a Federal building in Honolulu and a million dollars for Hilo.

HAWAII NOMINATIONS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 6.—The nominations of Chief Justice Frear of the Supreme Court of Hawaii, Associates Hartwell and Hatch, Third Circuit Judge Matthewman, Fourth Circuit Judge Parsons and Fifth Circuit Judge Hardy were sent to the Senate today.

JAPANESE CRUISER REPORTED SUNK.

VLADIVOSTOK, Dec. 6.—The Japanese cruiser Adzuma is reported to have been sunk by a mine.

HIT RUSSIAN BATTLESHIPS

Washington, D. C., December 6, 1904.

To Japanese Consul, Honolulu.—Port Arthur Besieging Army reports that our naval guns bombarded the Russian ships in the port from the 3rd to the 5th of December and several of the enemy's ships, especially the Pobieda and Retvizan, were hit repeatedly. On the afternoon of the 5th of December the enemy's powder magazine at the south of Pehushan was hit by our shells and exploded causing conflagration for over two hours. On the 5th of December our heavy guns also worked effectively on the Russian ships including the Poltava which raised thick smoke lasting for one hour. The siege works against Sungshushan and forts to the east of the same continued the day and night of the 4th of December and captured two quickfiring in the caponiere of Urlungshan. On the 6th of December our heavy guns renewed bombardment against the Russian ships with satisfactory results. Bombardment still continuing.

HIOKI.

All three of the vessels mentioned in the above cable are battleships.

Paderewski Marveled At Hawaii's Big Volcanoes

FAMOUS POLISH PIANIST ARRIVE D ON VENTURA EN ROUTE TO SAN FRANCISCO—DECLARED HONOLULU TO BE MOST INTERESTING PLACE—TRAVELS WITH PRIVATE PHYSICIAN—WAS CHANGED CONCERT TOUR—PLAYED PRIVATELY FOR AUCKLANDERS.

Ignace Jean Paderewski, the famous Polish pianist, is a through passenger aboard the S. S. Ventura for San Francisco. He is accompanied by his wife, physician, manager, man and his wife's maid. This morning Paderewski and party got into hocks and were driven about the city. This is the first time that the famous pianist has ever visited Honolulu.

"This is certainly a most interesting place," said Paderewski this morning before he left the vessel. "I regret exceedingly that I can not remain longer but the schedule of the steamers is such that we could not make arrangements to have the vessel arrive last night so that I could play. I would like very much to visit these islands and see more of them. We visited the volcanoes in New Zealand.

"The trip has been delightful. Australia and New Zealand were new places to me. The trip that was made from France to Australia was the longest that I have yet undertaken. We were to have gone to India, China and Japan, but the war necessitated a change in our plans." But while Paderewski was explaining interest in Honolulu the hackdrivers were making it interesting enough for the manager by trying to charge him enormous rates for cab hire.

Paderewski would have given a concert in Honolulu had it not been for his inability to arrange for a change in the schedule so as to give him one night in port. It had been hoped that the vessel could be gotten into Honolulu last night so that the concert could be given. J. D. Spreckels, of the Oceanic S. S. Company, was called by W. Adlington, the manager for Paderewski, and requested to order the Ventura to get into Honolulu Monday night, but Spreckels was absent from San Francisco and the arrangement could not be made.

Adlington, the manager, had planned a very extended tour for the artist. From Marseilles, they were to go to Australia and New Zealand, and then to China, Japan and India, and returning to play in Egypt, Constantinople and Greece as Paderewski had not appeared in any of those places, and the Sultan of Turkey had expressed the desire to hear the famous artist. The Japanese-Russian war necessitated a change of these plans however. It was decided that the prospects of playing in Japan, China and India were not promising, so all of those countries were cut out of the tour, and it was decided to return home by way of America. The prospects for concerts in America are flattering, so Manager Adlington arranged for a series of 50 concerts in America and Paderewski is now going to fill them.

Paderewski is accompanied this trip by a special physician. This is the first time that such an attendant has been necessary, but inasmuch as the original plans called for the artist visiting countries where he would be more subject to sickness than in Europe or America, it was decided to have a physician in constant attendance upon the artist. Dr. M. Ratynski, a Frenchman, is the physician.

Herr Paderewski is exactly like his picture. His bushy hair is the most striking feature about him. Its a dull faded blonde hue. He wears a mustache and imperial, red in color. In size he is rather a small man of nervous temperament. He is very affable and converses perfectly in English, although with a slight foreign accent. He was especially interested to learn about Hawaii and when informed of the extent of the volcanoes expressed the utmost astonishment.

During the voyage the visitor did not give any concerts aboard the vessel, but he participated regularly every day. The Steinway Company had sent a special piano to the steamer for him. This morning he purchased a newspaper and passed considerable time reading at the breakfast table.

Paderewski is paid an all but fabulous sum. He is paid 1,000 pounds for every performance. During the present trip he has thrown away enormous sums by refusing to appear when the booking has not been up to expectations. He was advertised to give a concert at Auckland last Thursday week but failed to make his appearance. When he discovered that some score of important settlers who had traveled hundreds of miles to hear the great tone poet were furious, he sent out his agent to the hotels and invited the growers to a private recital at his hotel. He also gave them a supper and they declared him "a jolly good fellow." It did not matter what the crowd thought of the matter.

TAKE WARNING FROM HONOLULU

SAMOA DISCUSSING IMPORTATION OF THE MONGOOSE TO KILL RATS.

APIA, Samoa, Nov. 21.—The Government has received a letter from an authoritative source in Honolulu, in which the writer condemns the importation of the mongoose as a rat exterminator. The writer states that these animals were introduced into the islands of Hawaii, Maui, Molokai and Oahu, and at first gave every satisfaction as rat killers. But when the rats became scarce, they accustomed themselves to eating eggs, poultry, etc., in consequence of which the rats increased again.

No mongoose were introduced into Kauai as the rats were not very troublesome there. As a result there is an abundance of poultry on that island. The writer advises against the introduction of the mongoose to Samoa, as the animal is not to be relied upon as a rat killer.

This opinion, coming as it does from a place where bitter experiences have been made with these animals, carries so much weight that it should effectually stop the importation of the mongoose to Samoa.

SUIT BROUGHT FOR KAHOE'S SHORTAGE

THE UNITED STATES SEEKING TO RECOVER STOLEN POST OFFICE FUNDS.

A suit has been commenced in the United States District Court by U. S. District Attorney Breckons and his assistant J. J. Dunne against the two sureties for Levi P. Kahoe, formerly postmaster at Kapaa, who is now serving a sentence of a year for having embezzled government money. The sureties are a wealthy Chinese named Aloiau and the father of the prisoner, Isaac Kahoe.

When Kahoe's shortages were discovered and his books were examined he was found to be short $1891, and upon promised restitution of this amount he got off with a comparatively light

STEWARDESS ALL BUT RAN THE SHIP

ONE OF ASSISTANTS ON THE VENTURA BECAME HYSTERICAL AND HAD TO BE REMOVED.

One of the stewardesses on the S. S. Ventura caused considerable excitement aboard the vessel last night. She suddenly went out of her head. Some said she was crazy but the ship's surgeon diagnosed the case under a more gentle classification by calling it hysteria. In any event the woman acted crazy enough, for she proceeded to take possession of the saloon last night.

"Ship Aho!" she cried as she bounded through the door, dressed in a morning wrapper with her hair hanging, like Ophelia's and Jane's down her back. Paderewski and some others were playing whist but the excited stewardess soon broke up the game. Most of the passengers were out on the deck but they were soon attracted by the cries of the woman. First she would laugh like a hyena and then she would break into a fit of sobbing. She evidently wanted to get Paderewski to play a cake walk for her but when the music was not forth coming, she waited around the room without music.

The woman had to be removed from the saloon and placed in the care of the ship's physician. The woman went out of her head some trips ago on the S. S. Sierra. She recovered and was then placed aboard the Ventura but the malady appears to have returned. She will probably be transferred to a hospital ashore, and kept there until she recovers.

SONOMA DUE TOMORROW.

The S. S. Sonoma is due tomorrow morning from San Francisco with five days later mail. She will sail in the evening for the Colonies.

The actual cash to square the defalcation was not forthcoming, but Aloiau and the elder Kahoe made a joint note for the amount, $1891 to Post Office Inspector Frank J. Hare. The note was for 90 days, but it has never been paid.

The suit is peculiar in that it is begun in the name of the United States, although the note was made to Inspector Hare personally.

What Congress May Do For Hawaii

ROOSEVELT'S RECOMMENDATIONS ARE ABOUT ALL THAT WAS EXPECTED BY THE ISLANDS—HILO BREAKWATER PROBABLY INCLUDED IN THE ESTIMATES OF SHAW—THE PLAN FOR FEDERAL ASSISTANCE AT LEPER SETTLEMENT.

The President's message to Congress, read at Washington today, contains all the more important of Hawaii's needs as set forth in Governor Carter's report and as urged in the Republican platform in the recent campaign. The dredging of Honolulu harbor and repayment to the Territory of money spent here on such work, which is properly for the federal government, will be welcome appropriations to the Territory.

The million dollars recommended for a federal building in Honolulu is as large as was expected and if Congress carries out the advice of the President Honolulu will have a splendid structure for the local federal officials. The purpose of the million dollars for Hilo is not definitely stated in the cable, but it is thought to be for a federal building and for the much desired Hilo breakwater.

The matter of study of leprosy by the Marine Hospital Service is one long urged by Hawaii. According to the plan as put forward here and by Dr. Cooper at the recent national congress of health authorities, a federal station will be established on Molokai, with one or more resident physicians, who will give their time to scientific study of the disease as well as to treatment of the patients. The plan is favored by Surgeon General Wyman and as far as is known there is no opposition to it. It is therefore believed to be likely that the appropriation asked for will be made.

The recommendation that the governor of Hawaii be given power to remove subordinates was made by former Governor Dole, as well as by Governor Carter. If carried out it will put an end to the "undated resignations" proposition.

The fact that the President does not mention the tariff question at all is taken as confirming recent reports that he intends to call an extra session of the new congress, to revise the tariff.

SHERIDAN HERE AHEAD OF TIME

THE TRANSPORT WAS NOT EXPECTED UNTIL TOMORROW—WILL SAIL TOMORROW.

The transport Sheridan, Captain Peabury, arrived this afternoon from Manila via Nagasaki, ahead of time. She was not expected until tomorrow. The vessel left Manila November 15 and Nagasaki November 23. She experienced good weather during the trip.

There is rather a small list of cabin passengers this trip, but the Sheridan has 591 casuals going home. Colonel Mason is in command of the soldiers. J. L. Gardner stops over at this place. Major A. C. Ducat of the 7th Infantry is returning to the Mainland from duty in the Philippines. He is accompanied by his wife.

The Sheridan will sail at 11 a. m. tomorrow for San Francisco. She will take the next mail.

NARROW ESCAPE

A small fire started in the elevator shaft of E. O. Hall & Sons some time between Saturday afternoon and Monday morning and burned itself out undiscovered. It was apparently caused by defective wiring in the company's private telephone system for the building. The damage was only nominal, as there was nothing inflammable in the shaft.

EMMET MAY CASE WILL BE TRIED

IS COMING HERE TOMORROW ON PURPOSE AND HIS CASE IS HELD.

The criminal calendar was called in Judge Gear's court this morning with a view to clearing the present list as far as possible. The only case definitely continued for the term was that of Solomon Meheula charged with gross cheat. Attorney Chillingworth wished to bring on the Chang Hung burglary cases but Attorney General Andrews stated that Emmet May, charged with embezzlement, was coming in on tomorrow's steamer from the Coast on purpose to stand his trial and he thought that under these circumstances the May case should be given precedence.

Attorney Dunne who will appear for May asked that the case be set for Thursday morning and, the Attorney General consenting, the case was so set. Other cases on the calendar were allowed to stand for further disposition but as there remains practically but a week of working days, it would seem that all, including the Naone murder case, will go over for the term.
